Dear friends,

As 2021 comes to an end, I am pleased to report that it has been a year of consolidation for GAAMAC.

We welcomed two new partners into our network: the Platform for Peace and Humanity and, just a few weeks ago, the African Coordination of Human Rights for the Armed Forces (CADHA).

We also reinforced alliances with the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance; the OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights; the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and UNESCO. These alliances allow for cross-fertilization between our community on the ground and the regional and multilateral arena.

GAAMAC has also consolidated as a community, through its very active Regional Initiatives and thanks to its fourth Global Meeting, GAAMAC IV, which convened over 300 participants from 61 countries.

Finally, in 2021 we also paved the way for the years to come: GAAMAC’s Steering Group set its policy strategy for 2022-2024.

Thank you all for your support this year. Together in 2022, we can make a stronger impact so that atrocities prevention becomes a reality.

Happy holidays,

Judge Silvia Fernández de Gurmendi,
GAAMAC Chair
Fighting misinformation to prevent election violence in Kenya

How can the country avoid repeating past episodes of misinformation, ethnic polarization, and violence for the 2022 elections?

Read more

Lessons on the promotion of tolerance in the Asia Pacific

GAAMAC's Asia Pacific Study Group analyzes six countries' preventive actions and/or responses to hate speech and incitement.

Read more

Rethinking health security after COVID-19

A report by the Oxford Institute for Ethics, Law and Armed Conflict highlights the dangers of viewing health risks solely in security terms.

Read more

GAAMAC IV, our biggest Global Meeting yet!

Recordings are now available to re-watch panels and plenary sessions. Thank you to all speakers, organizers and attendees!

Read more

Upcoming events

Conscience Matters: Racism, Ethnicity and Xenophobia

Online course: Prevention and guarantees of non-recurrence: the role of transitional justice
Stay in touch!

Do you have any questions or comments? Would you like to know more about GAAMAC or get involved in its actions? Our Support Office looks forward to hearing from you: contact@gaamac.org